Camera and Image Use Policy

The use of cameras should be considered an essential and integral part of everyday life. As such, children and young people and early year's practitioners and their managers are to be encouraged to use such technology in a positive and responsible way.

It has to be recognised however, that digital technology has increased the potential for cameras and images to be misused and inevitably there will be concerns about the risks to which children and young people may be exposed.

We recognise that having the right policies and practices in place will also protect school staff from misunderstanding, false accusations and damage to reputation around the use of digital images.

Practical steps must be taken to ensure that the use of cameras and images will be managed sensitively and respectfully. A proactive and protective ethos is to be reflected which will aim to promote effective safeguarding practice.

It must, however, be acknowledged that technology itself will not present the greatest risks, but the behaviours of individuals using such equipment will.

The Camera and Image Policy will aim to ensure safer and appropriate use of cameras and images through agreed acceptable use procedures. This is to be in line with legislative requirements and will aim to respect the rights of all individuals.

The Camera and Image Policy will apply to all individuals who are to have access to and/or be users of work-related photographic equipment. This will include children and young people, parents and carers, early years practitioners and their managers, volunteers, students, committee members, visitors, contractors and community users. This list is not to be considered exhaustive.

The Camera and Image Policy will apply to the use of any photographic equipment. This will include mobile phones, video cameras, webcams and portable gaming devices with inbuilt cameras as well as other forms of digital technology and resources for storing and printing images.

The Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) is to be responsible for ensuring the acceptable, safe use and storage of all camera technology and images. This will include the management, implementation, monitoring and review of the Camera and Image Policy.

This policy complies with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998, Freedom of Information Act 2000, Human Rights Act 1998 and other relevant Acts regarding the taking and use of photographic images of children.

All images will be used in a manner respectful of the eight Data Protection Principles. This means that images will be:

- iv. Accurate and up to date
- v. Kept on file for no longer than is necessary
- vi. Processed in line with an individual's legal rights
- vii. Kept securely
- viii. Adequately protected if transferred to other countries.

Where necessary, registration as a data controller will be applied for to allow personal information to be processed.
